SPOTLIGHT ON BUSINESS

High Angle Roofing is proud to call Saltcoats home; and to have the support of our community and surrounding areas since moving shop here in 2012. We began our company specializing in roofing and have been fortunate to have expanded to as well offer eavestroughs, siding, windows and doors, soffit and fascia. We pride ourselves on quality workmanship alongside top products within the industry. Each member of our crew (s) has become part of our team and been with us for multiple seasons. It's another one of those things we are proud to state; we can assure the crews will put the work into your home that they would their own. 2020 was a great year; given its many challenges. 2021 is underway and gearing up for what looks to be another busy season. All quotes are always free and we look forward to connecting with many of you in the year to come.

Resident Profile

We moved to Saltcoats which is my husband Mike's home town in February 2011 with our four children. I found the inspiration to become an artist in Saltcoats, specially a textile artist. My professional career in Japan, where I grew up, was in computer aided design, working in stone for an architecture firm and landscape companies. My life in Saltcoats is focused on my family and community. I began finding inspiration in the people around me, in the world of nature, in Saskatchewan and from Japanese culture. In 2016, I bought a sewing machine and began to explore fabric art through quilting and then led me to a textile artist. The creating of art is itself a purifying and healing act, and it is offered as an agent of purification and healing for others.

My pieces have been displayed in several juried shows in U.S.A, England and Canada and magazines. One of my pieces acquired in SK Arts permanent collections. I enjoy the life in Saltcoats!!
